

INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP
'IN NO WAY DOES LIFE
DIFFER FROM THE SEA'

Approaching the Non-Human in Byzantium and Beyond

10 MAY 2021
14 - 18 CET
ZOOM MEETING

ORGANIZERS

THOMAS ARENTZEN - Uppsala University

LAURA BORGHETTI - JGU Mainz

UPPSALA
UNIVERSITET

FRÜHE KONZEPTE
VON MENSCH
UND NATUR

Graduiertenkolleg 1876

JOHANNES GUTENBERG
UNIVERSITÄT MAINZ

PROGRAMME

Welcome 14:00 - 14:15

THOMAS ARENTZEN, Chair - Uppsala University

1. THE EARTH 14:15 - 15:15

LAURA FELDT - University of Southern Denmark

Approaching Wildernesses after "Nature": A Spatial-Narrative Approach and a Discussion of Wild Spaces in Late Antique Hagiography from Gaul

ADAM GOLDWYN - North Dakota State University

Gardens without Gardeners: (Un)narrating Labor in the Medieval Greek Novel

2. THE SEA 15:30 - 16:30

CHRISTOPHER SCHLIEPHAKE - Augsburg University

The Sympathetic Sea – Dolphins, Humans, and/as Companion Species in Plutarch and Pliny the Younger

VERONICA DELLA DORA - University of London

From the Billows of Passions to the Port of Salvation: The Patristic Sea as a Transformative Space

3. SEASONS AND WEATHER 16:45 - 18:00

LAURA BORGHETTI - Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz

The Wind that Shakes the Fronds. Hidden Agency and Metamorphosis in a Middle-Byzantine Poem

MILAN VUKAŠINOVIĆ - Uppsala University

Suitors for the Queen of Seasons: Can We Read Byzantine Springs as Trans-Human Entanglements?

INFORMATION

The workshop will be held digitally via Zoom.

To enter the virtual meeting, please click on the following link:

<https://uu-se.zoom.us/j/61249610156>

Each presentation will last about 20 minutes.

After each session, there will be a 20-minute discussion.

For any question please contact us at:

thomas.arentzen@lingfil.uu.se

lborghet@uni-mainz.de

UPPSALA
UNIVERSITET

FRÜHE KONZEPTE
VON MENSCH
UND NATUR

Graduiertenkolleg 1876

JOHANNES GUTENBERG
UNIVERSITÄT MAINZ

